ADVANCE GUARD BEATEN.

The card offered at Hawthorne yesterday was of a much higher order than that given the day previously, and consequently a larger crowd was on hand to witness the sport.

The feature attraction of the day was a free handicap at a mile and seventy yards in which Louisville with 95 pounds up met Advance Guard carrying 125 and Vulcain, 114. The son of Great Tom was made the favorite but ran a somewhat dull race, failing to show his usual stretch burst of speed.

Louisville, as the barrier arose, immediately went to the front, and remaining well within herself held her advantage for the entire route, winning handily by two lengths from Advance Guard, who closed stoutly in the last hundred yards, and in a desperate drive nipped Vulcain on the post by a head for second money. It was whispered about after the race that Advance Guard had had only a slight workout since the Wheeler Handicap.

The long distance race was won by the consistent Alaska who, cleverly ridden by Knight, laid within easy call of his field to the head of the stretch then came away quickly, winning by a length and a half from Tammany Chief who finished strongly under punishment beating the tiring Frangible a length for second place. Ben Chance finished well but Gormley was unable to give him the vigorous ride that he requires and the best he could do was to run fourth. With a good strong boy in the saddle he would certainly have cut an important figure in the race. Our Nellie ran well for a mile and then gave it up.

Brief, with her light impost of 92 pounds and backed for a good thing, ran away with the purse in the finale, winning by five lengths from El Ghor, who beat Sam McKeever a nose for second money. The winner, although off poorly, picked up her field gradually and moved up into the lead from next to last position just before straightening away for home. From here to the wire she simply cantered home. The Bondman closed with a dash in the last eighth and would have gotten third money from Sam McKeever in another stride. Adelaide ran well for about half a mile.

Ed Austin appeared to be thrown into an easy spot in the second race—a dash for youngsters at five and a half furlongs. He was made an odds on favorite, with Bullman in the saddle, and showed a clean pair of heels to the others for the entire route. Off in front, he was accompanied a short distance by The Giver, but long before the stretch had been reached the latter had enough and Ed Austin simply cantered the rest of the journey, winning by two and a half lengths from Jaubert, who beat Red Tip four for second place. South Elkhorn ran fairly well for a half mile and then faded away. The Giver showed a sharp turn of early speed, but could not carry it far.

Despite the fact that a report was circulated that The Lady had bled in a recent workout she was made a red hot favorite in the third race, but succumbed to Livadia, who put up a high class race and won in impressive style. The Griffin mare was luxuriant of speed, holding a commanding lead throughout the six and a half furlongs. The Lady, after lying in fourth position to the head of the stretch, closed up with determination, but was not able to beat the winner, who won quite handily by a length. Sevoxy tired as usual when the pinch came, finishing third a length and a half back of the Hildreth filly. Favonius ran a splendid race, making up much ground while coming down the last quarter and finishing with quite a burst of speed. He would have been a factor in the race had it been at seven furlongs. Len-nep failed to show much of a race and is probably waiting for mud to show at her best. Sharp Bird as usual displayed his sharp turn of speed, but could not carry it far.

A poor lot faced the barrier in the day's opener, the talent being all up in the air so far as picking the probable winner was concerned. The victor turned up in Latch Key a rank outsider who came with a well timed rush in the last sixteenth and won with ease, passing over the line three lengths in front of Zacatoso, who beat the fast tiring Mary Moore a length for second place. Hop Scotch backed by a select few for a sure thing, ran a short five furlongs and then retired, finishing utterly last.

THE MONADNOCK WEIGHTS.

Yesterday Secretary Clark made public the weights assigned the horses engaged in the Monadnock Handicap, which will be decided at Hawthorne Saturday. The distance to be traversed is 1 1-8 miles and as $4,000 is added the winner is bound to carry off a snug sum of money for his fortunate owner. Many of the good horses that served to render memorable the big handicaps at Washington Park are engaged in this stake and will serve to bring out a big crowd to view what must prove a highly interesting contest. The weights are as follows:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The late Pierre Lorillard was a reticent man about his racing plans and projects. He made a confidant of no one. Not even his best friends knew what stock he had at Rancocas. His employees were sworn to secrecy, and no one admitted within its gates unless armed with a written order from Mr. Lorillard himself, or accompanied by that gentleman. If he had a good crop of two-year-olds or a stake horse was fit to race for some big event only Mr. Lorillard and his trainers were aware of it.

A fairly correct list of the horses in training, stallions, broodmares, colts and fillies owned by Mr. Lorillard follows:

In training in England, G. Blackwell trainer, D. Maher jockey:
David Garrick, 4; Mirus, 3; Laus, 3; Pantatus, 3; Revere, 3; Exedo, 3; Hamiltar, 3; Soldanella, 2; Daldah, 2; Ragnarock, 2; Pharisee, 2; To-Cephalalgia went well to-day under clever handling. Kufa finished strong, running by the tiring Monroe Doctrine at the end. Cephalalgia, show, out. Kufa, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Annot Lyle. Went to post at 3:00. At post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a canter; second easily. Cameron broke in front, but nothing could extend him in the race. Otis was as easily second best, but the winner proved too much for Schreiber's colt at all stages. Peninsula finished strongly right at the end, but was lucky to beat The Rival who was pocketed on the turn and badly interfered with. Byrnes of Roscrea ran very well, but was outclassed and is best in mud. Grand Opera is a big colt that looks like Derby material and finished strongly. Scratched—26826 Luciline, 119; (26790) Fair Knight, 110; Nightingale, 107; (26895) Lady Radnor, 107; 26897 Montana Pioneer, 107.

Winner—Blk. c. by Charaxus—Meta Russell. Went to post at 3:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Colonel Padden was very rank in the first half, running out on the first turn, but simply played with his field and outclassed the others on a speed basis and proved able to go any distance. Kamara, under a strong and vigorous ride, ran an improved race and finished with a sensational rush. Carbuncle, badly interfered with on the first turn, came very fast at the end. Intrusive failed in the last quarter after appearing a contender to the stretch. Prince Richard is in good form and ran a fine race. Bedeck ran well for three quarters. McGrathiana Prince belongs elsewhere and should be kept in view. Cyrano ran a bad race.

Winner—Ch. f. by Order—Alfalfa. Went to post at 4:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Smoke appeared a certain winner throughout, waited on the pacemaker under a strong pull to the stretch, where she drew to the front easing up. She seems an improved mare this year and can beat much better horses. Goebel showed a good turn of speed and stuck to his work well at the end. Bastile just lasted long enough to get third place from the fast coming Royal Sterling, who appeared deficient in early speed today.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fellowcharm—Sister to Ruth Ryan.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Alaska moved up fast when entering the last quarter and easily assumed command at the last eighth. Tammany Chief, under strong riding, finished strongly. Frangible was tiring badly in the last sixteenth. Gormley was unable to give Ben Chance the vigorous ride that he needs and the colt quit with his mouth wide open. Our Nellie ran well for seven furlongs and then faded away.

Overweights—Frangible, 11 pounds.

Alaska, show, 1 to 4. Tammany Chief, show, 7 to 10. Frangible, show, 3 to 5. Ben Chance, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Badge—Verdict.

Went to post at 5:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Brief, off poorly, worked her way gradually through her field and assumed an easy command when turning for home, simply cantering down the last quarter. El Ghor faltered for a moment at the last eighth and then rallied again, finishing strongly. Sam McKeever finished resolutely, but had all he could do to beat The Bondman for third money. The latter closed much ground in the last quarter and ran a fair race all told. Adelante ran well for six furlongs. Brownie Anderson showed early speed, but tired in the stretch run and hardly ran her race.

Overweights—Adelante, 1 pound; Brief, 2.

Brief, show, 7 to 5. El Ghor, show, 2 to 1. Sam McKeever, show, 3 to 5. Brownie Anderson, show, out.

He laid in a good position until Tom Gilmore tired through racing with Fiddler III. and then came on and won by the best ride. Tom Gilmore showed unexpected speed and ran a good race. Connie Lee ran below her mark, as did Birdie May. The latter can do much better. Fiddler III. displayed speed for six furlongs.

Verna K. showed the most speed and outfooted her field all the way, but she was doing her best at the end to stall off Innominatum. The latter went around his field and was wearing the winner down. Minute Gun was off well, but could not live the pace. Immense quit. Whirligig is a bad actor and ran his race at the post.

Winner—Ch. f, by Wagner—Dolly Withers.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and all out; second easily. Dolly Wagner showed the most speed, but Gray Dally was crowding her all through the stretch and might have won with a strong ride. Flag of Truce tired and hung after he got to the leader. St. David quit with his mouth open after running three quarters.

Winner—Ch. f, by Sir Dixon—Kentucky Belle.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second the same. Dixie Queen broke well in motion and quickly established a lead that she kept to the end, but was forced to do her best to stall off Cousine and Edwin Kenton at the end. Cousine ran a good race and was a contender throughout. Edwin Kenton was on the extreme outside, got off tangled up and went around his field, finished with a rush and would have won in a dozen more strides. Concertina did not run her race. She can do better.

Scratched—26902 Silver Chimes, 94.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Drummond showed the most speed, won well in hand and can beat a better field than that which opposed her today. Louis Wagner ran a good race and will bear watching. Maid of Dundee was caught in a jam on the first turn and but for this would have finished closer up. All Gray tired in the last eighth. Insoleunce unsated her rider soon after getting on the track. She showed a smart turn of speed for a furlong. King Ford had no mishaps. Matches was green at the post and wheeled when the flag fell. Lathrop was out off soon after the start.
